MURCIA

INTRODUCTION

MAR MENOR GAMES SPORT4CANCER is a great international non-profit sporting event for people of all ages that will take place in the Mar Menor (Region of Murcia, Spain), an ideal place for the practice of nautical, aquatic and beach sports.

This event is especially dedicated to bring together cancer patients/survivors and their families, friends and supporters, federated and amateur sportsmen and sportswomen, as well as society in general.

INTRODUCTION

The sporting event brings together more than 60 sporting activities, competitions and exhibitions to encourage the participation of citizens visiting the Mar Menor area.

It also has parallel activities, such as the scientific congress and sports competitions for schoolchildren.

The three previous editions of "Mar Menor Games" were a great success, and it is expected that this fourth edition will surpass the previous editions, both in number of competitions, attendees and international expansion. Consolidating itself as a reference event for national and international tourism and being a great promoter of our land and our Mar Menor.

LOCATION

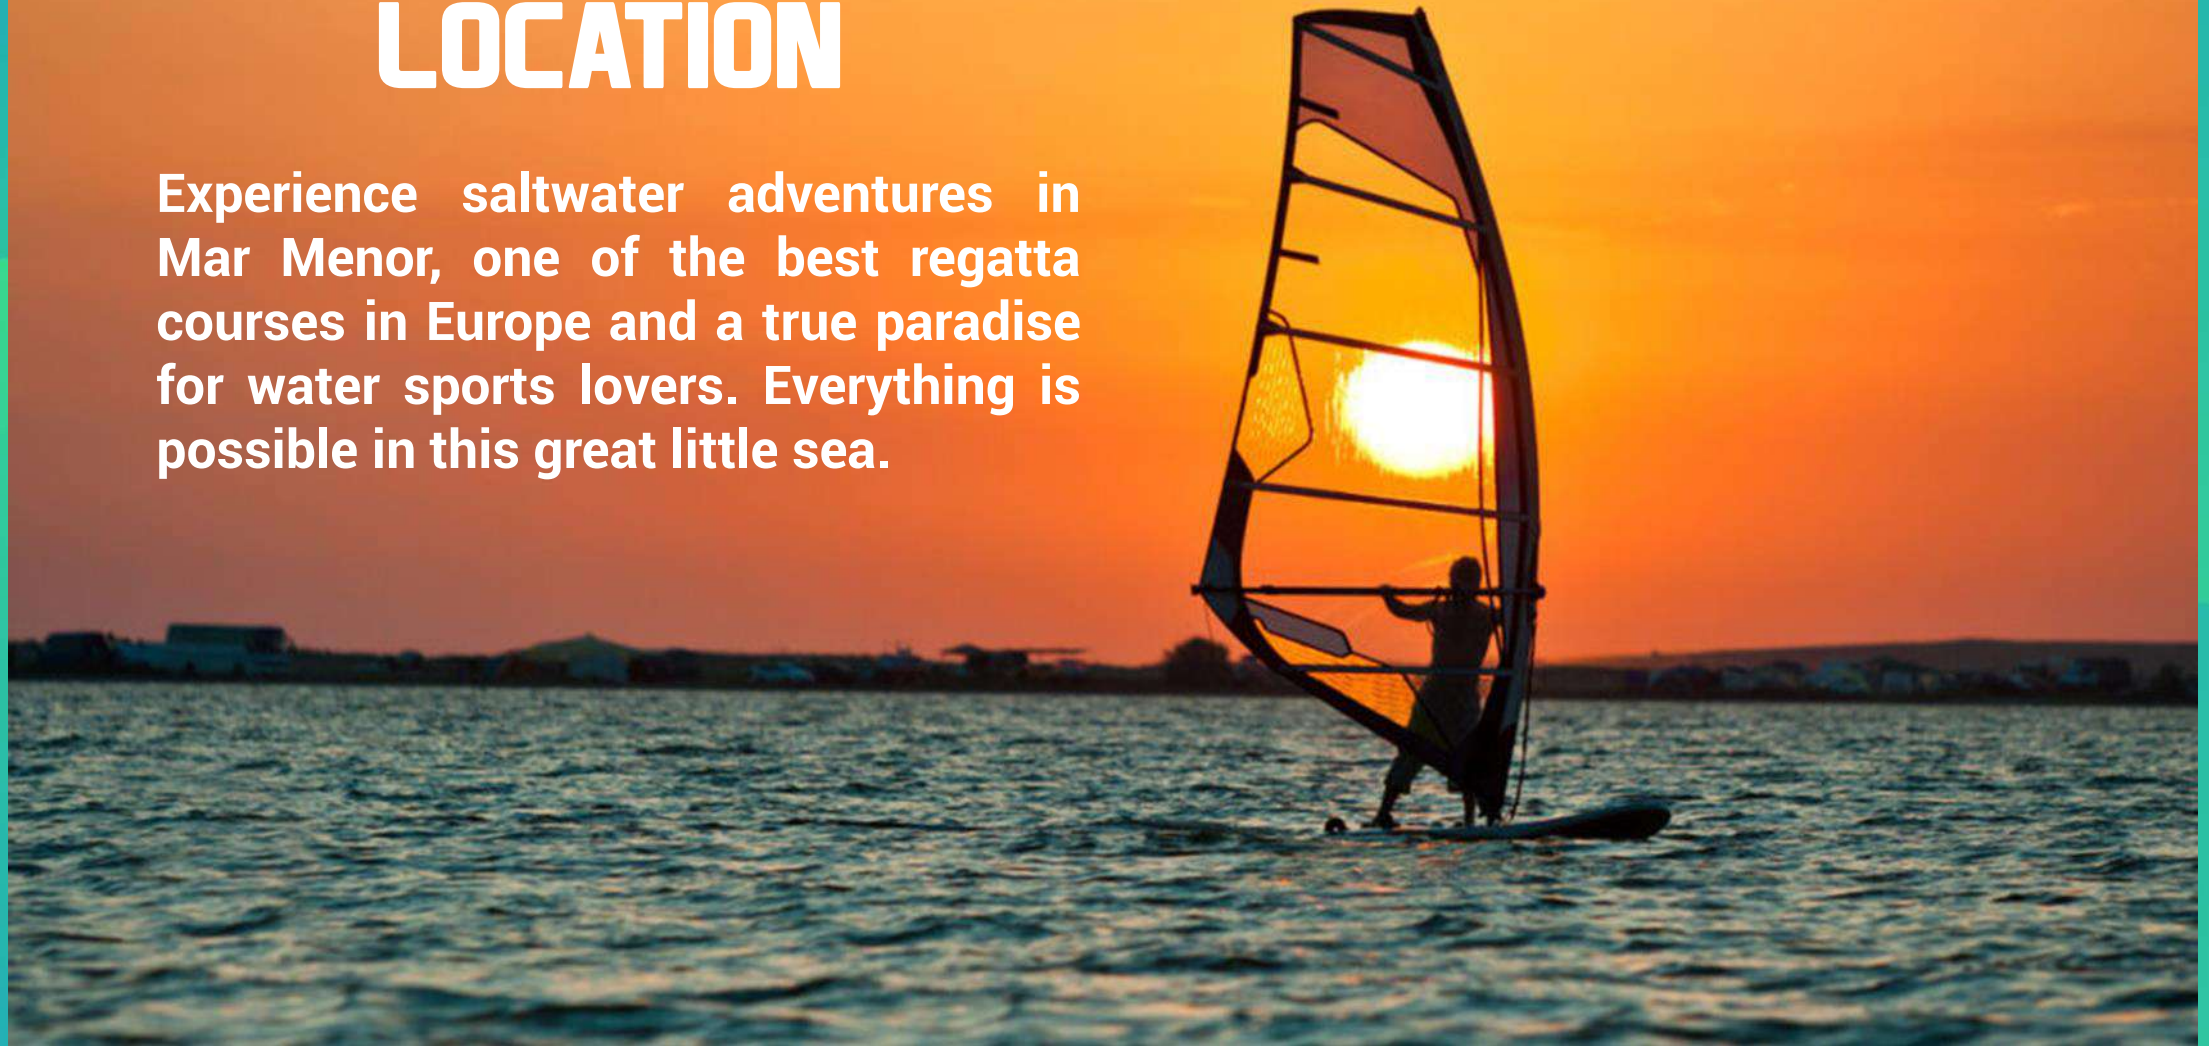

Sun and endless beaches for all tastes. Mar Menor is the ideal destination for a few unforgettable days of relaxation, whether in winter or summer.

It is synonymous with rest and tranquillity, with calm and shallow waters, it is the largest saltwater lagoon in Europe. This natural environment enjoys a paradisiacal microclimate, sunshine 300 days a year and an average temperature of 19°C are unbeatable conditions for the practice of physical activity.

LOCATION

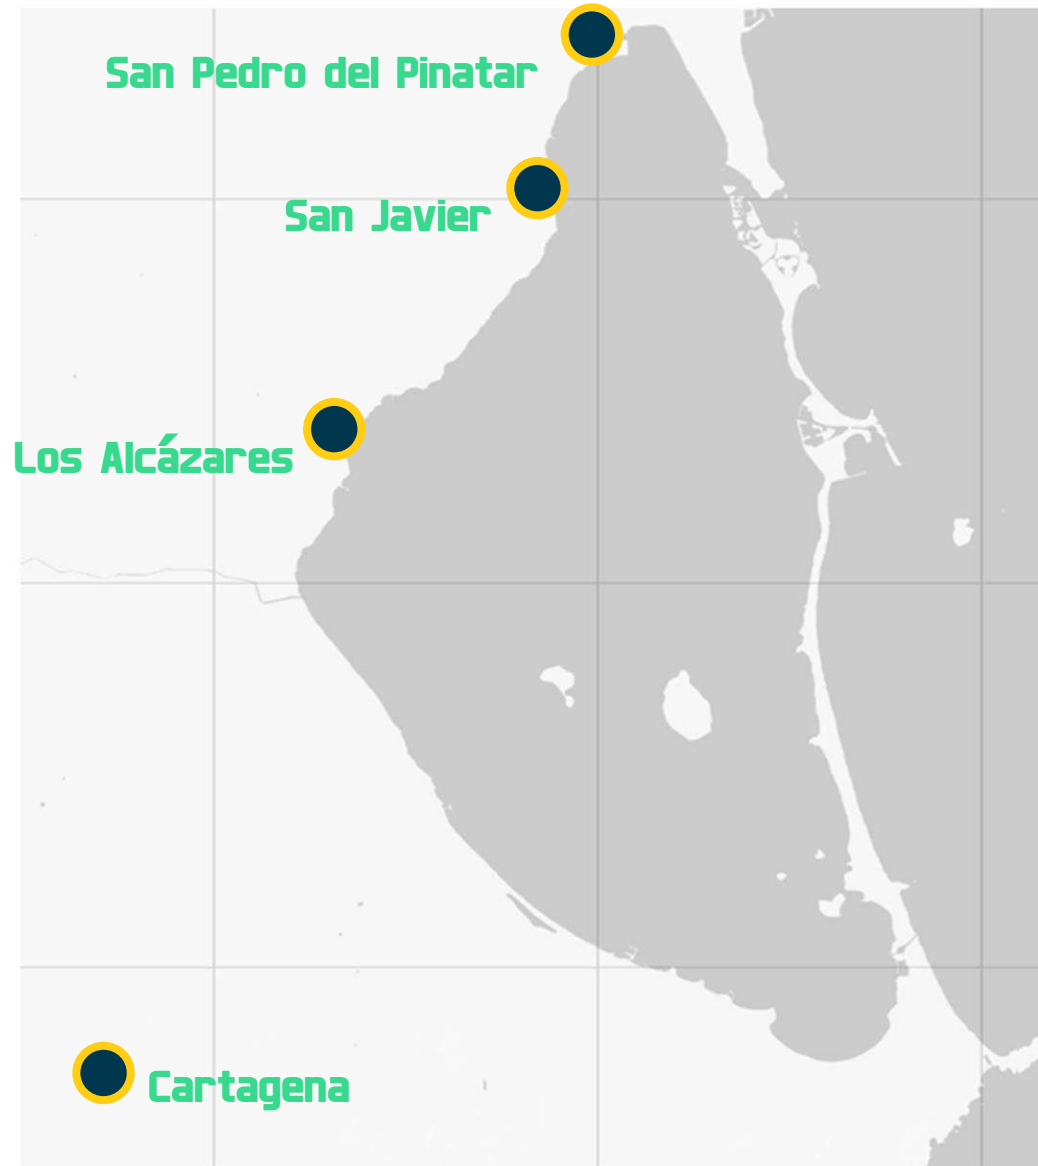

Experience saltwater adventures in Mar Menor, one of the best regatta courses in Europe and a true paradise for water sports lovers. Everything is possible in this great little sea.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES AND COMPETITIONS

VOLUNTEERING

All sporting activities are organised by qualified staff who are experts in the different sporting disciplines. More than 200 people are in charge of coordinating and supervising the development of the event.

In addition, volunteers are one of the most important parts of any sporting event. They are altruistic, caring and responsible people who make up this great family.

More than 200 volunteers will not only support the event with logistical and information tasks, but will also carry out sustainable actions and initiatives, such as the "Ecovolunteers" who will inform participants and attendees about sustainable development measures and will collect waste on the beaches where the event is taking place.

TARGET GROUP: INCLUSIVE SPORT

The main target groups of the sport event are:

- ★ People who do not get enough physical activity
- ★ Cancers patients/survivors
- ★ People with disabilities
- ★ Womens
- ★ Immigrants
- ★ Society at large
- ★ Sport/health specialists
- ★ Policy makers
